U.S. Embassy Officials Speak with Kisumu Youth

The American Corner in the Kisumu Public Library hosted a delegation from the U.S. Embassy in Nairobi on May 8 to discuss the importance of higher education with hundreds of secondary school students and to urge them to consider studying in the United States. Public Affairs Officer Michael Greenwald and EducationUSA Advisor Faith Biko also spoke to over 300 students at Kisumu Boys Day School. The officials explained the qualifications students need to be accepted to an American university and explained how the U.S. Embassy's EducationUSA advising services can help Kenyans apply to study in the United States.
